

User Content and Conduct Policy

TruContact's products and services enable people maintain and share contact information about themselves with their friends and business associates. We depend on users to alert us about anyone who violates this user content and conduct policy. This policy can be modified at any time and we will communicate these changes on our website.

The following activities are prohibited and may result in TruContacts terminating your services:

1. Illegal activities
2. Malicious and deceptive activities
3. Transmission of hate speech.
4. Misuse of personal and confidential information
5. Hacking, impersonating someone else or hijacking their account
6. Child exploitation and transmission of offensive material including pornographic content.
7. Spam
8. Harassment, bullying, violence and threats
9. Creation and use of multiple accounts

The above list is not exhaustive. If in our opinion you use the service in a manner detriment to others, we reserve the right to terminate your account without notice.

For all enquiries, please contact policy@trucontacts.com

Date: 29 November 2015.